

Come Gather 'Round — Thoughts
By Bryan Moyer Suderman

“Come here, quick! Uncle Jeremy has something for you!”

What child can resist such an invitation? What adult can?

What if we lived each day with the hope and expectation — even certainty — that God has something here for us... that God has something here for me...

What if we approached our work, our worship, our school day, our day at home, with this kind of anticipation?

This song is that kind of invitation.

Come gather 'round,...'cause there's good news to share
Come gather 'round... with people everywhere
Come gather 'round... let's see what's been prepared
Our God has something here for you! Come gather 'round!
